

SHARING ROADS INFORMATION ACROSS THE EU NORTHERN PERIPHERY

The EU ROADEX Network is a group of northern European roads organisations that have come together to share information and research on low volume rural roads. The Network was started in 1998 with match funding from the European Union Northern Periphery Programme and currently has Partners from the seven European States of Finland, Iceland, Ireland, Norway, Greenland, Scotland and Sweden.

www.roadex.org

Northern Periphery Programme
2007–2013

Innovatively investing in Europe's Northern Periphery for a sustainable and prosperous future

European Union
European Regional Development Fund